Sustainable Results

Our Triumph program has an immediate opening for a dynamic and flexible, full –time Vocational Coach in the Fraser Valley. The Vocational Coach will provide individualized and attentive client service plans, facilitate placements, as well as provide marketing to employers in the Fraser Valley.

The successful candidate must have a minimum of three years experience working with individuals with a disability. Preference will be given to candidates with vocational coaching experience and a related degree/diploma or certificate. Knowledge of the local labour market, community resources, government programs, job search techniques, career development, employer relations and issues related to the unemployed are essential. Driver's license and reliable vehicle required.

Triumph Vocational Services creates opportunities for people with disabilities in British Columbia to develop skills, increase independence and participate in the workplace. Triumph is a division of WCG International. WCG offers a comprehensive benefits package, diverse growth opportunities and a rewarding team environment.

Please submit a cover letter and resume via email to hr@wcginternational.com to express your interest in this position. Please quote the competition number in your subject line. This competition will remain open until a candidate is selected.
