JOBS FILLED FAST: Lisa Trotter, assistant manager at Thrifty Foods' Cloverdale store, talks to Kelly Gorman, 17, about a cashier's job with the grocery chain during The Job Fair at the Bay Centre downtown yesterday. Thrifty Foods hired 25 people "on the spot," said Deb Wood, spokeswoman for WCG International, which organized the fair. It drew 60 businesses ranging from retail to high tech and including the RCMP and Home Depot. More than 400 job seekers filled out applications, secured job leads or were hired immediately. WCG stages The Job Fair at the Bay Centre twice a year, in the spring and fall.
