

Creating opportunities for success in business

Vancouver Island News Group
Tue 06 Mar 2007
Page: 0026
Section: Nanaimo News Bulletin - Business
Byline:
Source:
Edition:
Length: 250 words

WCG International HR Solutions and Triumph Vocational Services celebrate Benoit Croteau, recipient of the Comox Valley Chamber of Commerce Customer Service Award. Benoit, a Triumph client, has been a valued employee at Thrifty Foods in Courtenay for two years and is nicknamed the "Front of Store Ambassador."

Benoit is known throughout the community for his engaging personality. Even when he's hard at work, Benoit is often whistling, singing or telling jokes, making him popular with fellow employees as well as shoppers.

It's not unusual for people to line up at the till just to have the chance to interact with him.

It's exactly this kind of friendly and positive attitude that Rick Gaiga, Manager of the store, looks for in employees. Rick has been thrilled with his experience of hiring three team members through Triumph.

"I have been very fortunate when working with Triumph, as I recognize the hard work that goes into ensuring each individual is a good fit for our team, and has the friendly and positive attitude we look for when hiring," says Rick.

Benoit says that as a result of his employment, his self-esteem has improved and he has a better quality of life.

Congratulations Benoit, on an award well-deserved.

Triumph is a program that creates opportunities for employers and people with disabilities who want to achieve their vocational potential. If you're interested in growing your business with this free hiring solution, call us today at 1-866-689-7150 or go to www.triumphvocational.com.

Copyright 2007 Nanaimo News Bulletin